THE ISRAEL TEST - New York Post

The Israel Test is the central divide in the world today. How you answer it as an individual and ultimately how we answer it as a nation is a test of our own will to triumph over enemies who hate us, as they hate Israel, for what is best within us. I'm George Gilder -- a non-Jew who has passed the Israel Test -- for Prager University.

Reading the latest crop of books about Israel, a reviewer has the sense of reading half a book at a time. Each book is a polemic—for Israel, against Israel, or with policy imperatives of one kind or another—and each one is half intelligent and half drivel. It is sad to see that George Gilder's The Israel Test conforms to this pattern. The book provides a well-researched and intelligent argument defining Israel: Why the country exists; why it is important to the world, and to the U.S ...
