Question 01:
NEGLIGENCE
Negligence in the legal sense is defined as a disturbance in the right to do what a reasonable person would have done under the circumstances. It is the applicant's responsibility to establish and show that a duty of care was owed by defendant to the applicant.

Title: Negligence and Tort Law Assignments

Negligence (Lat. negligentia) is a failure to exercise appropriate and/or ethical ruled care expected to be exercised amongst specified circumstances. The area of tort law known as negligence involves harm caused by failing to act as a form of carelessness possibly with extenuating circumstances. The core concept of negligence is that people should exercise reasonable care in their actions, by taking account of the potential harm that they might foreseeably cause to other people or property.
