SS8H2 The student will analyze the colonial period of Georgia's history. The colony of Georgia was officially founded on February 12, 1733. Contrary to popular belief, Georgia was not a debtor's colony and not a single debtor was released from prison to settle the 13th colony. In addition, James Oglethorpe was not the primary "founder" of Georgia nor was he the colony's official "governor," but one of 21 trustees who were responsible for governing the colony.
