More beautiful sewing patterns and projects from Alabama Chanin! In particular, I love the camisole dress and gored skirt and have sewn up both of them more than once. Both patterns are great for basics made up in unembellished cotton jersey, or for really special pieces complete with hand applique and beading.

Alabama Studio Style is that kind of book. Part craft book, part cookbook - filled with antidotes about the food and the people of Florence Alabama - people I'd love to meet - the book quickly becomes an old friend.

I have not put this book down since it arrived in the mail. The projects are so beautiful.
