As a spirit being, prior to His human birth, He was infinite in knowledge, power and presence. As God He would know everything and have unlimited power to act on any object, anywhere. But if He was human, He could not do everything. He would be limited to the normal abilities any normal human being would have.

The God Who Became a Human Being | United Church of God

What if God were human nature? Forget the symbolism and portrayal as God as a being who has the power to independently judge. What if God WAS love, and hate, and indifference and all the things that make us human - (our soul perhaps?). Heaven would be inner peace and contentment. Hell would be disappointment in yourself.
