Meet the characters: Sara aka the Little Princess is described as (and I'm only using words written explicitly in the book): thin, pale, with striking green eyes too big for her face (now I know where so many YA heroine's descriptions come from LOL), clever, good, serious, quick at her lessons, proud, brave, generous, hospitable, unconquerable, amiable, good-tempered, having good manners. She speaks fluent French, though she'd never learned it.

A Little Princess by Frances Hodgson Burnett

A Little Princess is one of my FAVORITE movies and I watch it at least once a year. I tend not to think about deeper themes with my entertainment (my life provides me plenty of rumination material so I don't really want it in my escape time), but I really love this analysis and it makes me feel awesome about the thousands of times I've seen this movie (I didn't really care about the book ...
