Sorority Sisters (Video 2016) - IMDb

Sorority Sisters is an eight title novel series that was written by Marjorie W. Sharmat between 1986 and 1987. They were published by Laurel Leaf Press. This series focused on two very different sororities in a fictitious high school in Arizona. In contrast to most teen romance series, (which were common and quite prolific at that time) this series was written with kind of a sense of humor.

Sorority Sisters (novel series) - Wikipedia

The word comes from Latin soror, meaning "sister," "cousin, daughter of a father's brother," or "female friend." The first organization to use the term "sorority" was Gamma Phi Beta, established in 1874. The development of "fraternities for women" during this time was a major accomplishment in the way of women's rights and equality.
