I've been a HUGE Karen Witemeyer fan since I first read "A Tailor Made Bride." "Full Steam Ahead" didn't feel like the author I fell for in that first novel. While parts of the story were very good, I didn't connect with the characters as I had in her previous novels. It's something that I can't pinpoint, or put my finger on, but it was ...

Full Steam Fun & Faith Nicole and Darius characters are well defined, fun, and yet completely different from characters in Witemeyer's other books. Their faith as math-minded people is presented in a realistic manner. The plot is excellent, although the ending is rushed or perhaps it goes one scene too long.
