The Big Book For Peace

It's a big book that emphasizes the need for peace. I like how all the stories are a different kind of peace- - whether it be kindness towards neighbors or kindness in times of racism. You can tell its an older book because of its mention of a possible nuclear war, but the need for peace is still relevant today. flag Like · see review

When I was a kid, one book that really hit home with me was the Big Book of Peace, where I was first really presented with a kid-friendly take on the horrors that men can do to each other. One of the stories I remember best about it was a story of the concentration camps our own government ran for people of Japanese descent.
