The Chart interfaces provide clients with the means to dynamically describe and populate a Chart when the diagram is viewed. The API is wide ranging and flexible, allowing you to illustrate many different scenarios graphically at runtime. The feature allows you to define any type of chart you require using JavaScript either as code or JSON. A good reference for the Chart interfaces and their use is the 'EA 15 Examples > Dynamic Charts' Package in the Enterprise Architect Example Model.

There are pre-set charts that can simply be dragged onto a diagram, and user defined charts where you can define the chart type, the content and the chart appearance. This expressive and flexible feature provides an invaluable tool for the Project Manager and, apart from day-to-day tracking, provides useful collateral for inclusion into executive presentations.
