Crazy Heart Thomas Cobb

"Thomas Cobb has produced a piercing, keenly observed chronicle of modern Americana, getting across the current mores and attitudes as experience by C&W musician Blake." (Los Angeles Times)

"Thomas Cobb has written a bitter, witty psychological profile of an aging genius that is also a wonderful celebration of country music. Bad Blake lives at the poor end of the rainbow, but you'll never forget him. Crazy Heart is a splendid achievement." (Donald Barthelme)

Its film adaptation with the same title was one of the films which had given me hope back then.
