This seems to be the Hot Water Music album everyone forgets about, but it's probably my favorite. I'm a sucker for post hardcore bands like Braid and Fugazi, so naturally HWM draws me in just on their sound alone. What makes these guys so great, though, is the songs. Just listen to "Bound" and "Floor" and you'll feel like shouting along.

Exactly what you'd expect from Hot Water Music. Good, straight forward, rock n roll. I has a little edge to it but I can still play it around my wife without much complaining. There do not seem to be many bands out there that can play this style of music well and not seem like douches in the process.
