The artworks of ancient Egypt have fascinated people for thousands of years. The early Greek and later Roman artists were influenced by Egyptian techniques and their art would inspire those of other cultures up to the present day. Many artists are known from later periods but those of Egypt are completely anonymous and for a very interesting reason: their art was functional and created for a ...

Ancient Egyptian art was characterized largely by a traditionalist fashion, focusing on adherence to form and order at the expense of creativity or expressionistic style. The style in which they rendered human form was essentially formalized and used widely. It is referred to as frontalism and was basically a rule in the creation of human forms.
