Life Planning For You How

Keep in mind, Life Planning is a relatively new concept in the financial planning world, and is an off-shoot of the financial planning we all think of. Life Planning uses the basic financial planning process and inputs as a jumping off point to help folks better plan the next stages of their lives (retired or otherwise). Life Planning is more in-depth and focused to what makes the individual (or individuals if a spouse/partner is involved) tick -- what really gets them excited about life.
