Dan Poblocki's debut novel, The Stone Child, a young adult fantasy/horror novel, follows main character Eddie Fennicks, an adolescent obsessed with the horror and mystery novels of his favorite writer, Nathaniel Olmstead. The novel begins when Eddie moves with his mother and father to Gatesweed, Massachusetts, and Eddie discovers that Olmstead used to live there—not only that but Olmstead was inspired by the town, setting many of his books in a fictional version of it.

And when whispered by children in the dead of night, some secrets become stories. They percolate and brew and change. Sometimes, under special circumstances, the stories become legends, destined to survive even as the children who share them grow up and move on.” — Dan Poblocki, The Ghost of Graylock
