Institution And Passivity Course Notes

The second half of Institution and Passivity consists of Merleau-Ponty’s lecture notes for the course entitled “The Problem of Passivity: Sleep, the Unconscious, Memory” and its “Summary”. The “problem” Merleau-Ponty addresses in this course, as he sets it up in the “Summary,” is similar to that of the first course: how to explain those aspects of experience that cannot be accounted for by usual conceptions of the “subject” as either exclusively constituting or constituted.
