Complications

A Surgeon's Notes on an Imperfect Science Metropolitan Books

A brilliant and courageous doctor reveals, in gripping accounts of true cases, the power and limits of modern medicine. Sometimes in medicine the only way to know what is truly going on in a patient is to operate, to look inside with one's own eyes. This book is exploratory surgery on medicine itself, laying bare a science not in its idealized form but as it actually is -- complicated, perplexing, and profoundly human. Atul Gawande offers an unflinching view from the scalpel's edge, where science is ambiguous, information is limited, the stakes are high, yet decisions must be made. In dramatic and revealing stories of patients and doctors, he explores how deadly mistakes occur and why good surgeons go bad. He also shows us what happens when medicine comes up against the inexplicable: an architect with incapacitating back pain for which there is no physical cause; a young woman with nausea that won't go away; a television newscaster whose blushing is so severe that she cannot do her job. Gawande offers a richly detailed portrait of the people and the science, even as he tackles the paradoxes and imperfections inherent in caring for human lives. At once tough-minded and humane, Complications is a new kind of medical writing, nuanced and lucid, unafraid to confront the conflicts and uncertainties that lie at the heart of modern medicine, yet always alive to the possibilities of wisdom in this extraordinary endeavor. Complications is a 2002 National Book Award Finalist for Nonfiction.

The Meaning of Things

Applying Philosophy to life Hachette UK

A refreshing distillation of insights into the human condition, by one of the best-known and most popular philosophers in the UK. Thinking about life, what it means and what it holds in store does not have to be a despondent experience, but rather can be enlightening and uplifting. A life truly worth living is one that is informed and considered so a degree of philosophical insight into the inevitabilities of the human condition is inherently important and such an approach will help us to deal with real personal dilemmas. This book is an accessible, lively and thought-provoking series of linked commentaries, based on A. C. Grayling's 'The Last Word' column in the GUARDIAN. Its aim is not to persuade readers to accept one particular philosophical point of view or theory, but to help us consider the wonderful range of insights which can be drawn from an immeasurably rich history of philosophical thought. Concepts covered include courage, love, betrayal, ambition, cruelty, wisdom, passion, beauty and death. This will be a wonderfully stimulating read and act as an invaluable guide as to what is truly important in living life, whether facing success, failure, justice, wrong, love, loss or any of the other profound experience life throws out.

The Pink Steering Wheel Chronicles

A Love Story Hatherleigh Press

When Bloomberg journalist Mark Pittman suddenly died, his widow spent four summers driving 31,152 miles searching for answers. In her fearless memoir, The Pink Steering Wheel Chronicles: A Love Story, author Laura Fahrenthold presents a moving portrait of marriage, motherhood and mourning as she captains a 1993 RV sprinkling her husband's ashes with their two young daughters and a stray dog in an epic quest for healing and understanding. Filled with insight and wit from a career in journalism, the story captures the family's adventures and misadventures, her deeply-layered love story, and her hilarious slice-of-life dispatches where the pink steering wheel becomes her spiritual GPS.

Gamsat Section 2

Essay Writing Guide Createspace Independent Publishing Platform

With little literary experience, essay writing has posed a significant challenge to many science students taking the GAMSAT. This book intends to share some personal insights as a science student tackling essay writing. The book focuses on how to structure both essays and provides a step-by-step guide on how to successfully write an essay using this structure. The book also shares the tips, tricks and techniques collected over many months of preparing for section 2 of the GAMSAT. Included in this book is a GAMSAT word list to help students get a head start in building their vocabulary with some commonly used words (helpful for both section 1 and section 2). I hope that with this book, students will feel empowered to successfully tackle GAMSAT Section 2 essay writing, and be one step closer to becoming the next generation of doctors.

The Green Book

The Solution of the Problem of Democracy Createspace Independent Publishing Platform

The Green Book is a short book setting out the political philosophy of Libyan leader Muammar Gaddafi. The book was first published in 1975. It was "intended to be read for all people." It is said to have been inspired in part by The Little Red Book (Quotations from Chairman Mao). Both were widely distributed both inside and outside their country of origin, and "written in a simple, understandable style with many memorable slogans." An English translation was issued by the Libyan People's Committee, and a bilingual English/Arabic edition was issued in London by Martin, Brian & O'Keeffe in 1976. During the Libyan Civil War, copies of the book were burned by anti-Gaddafi demonstrators.

Gamsat Essay Collection

Your Guide to Excellent Essay Writing!

The art of presenting one's own argument can take time to develop, and even longer to master. Many dread the thought of public speaking as developing original arguments and counter arguments can be daunting. Thinking of discussion topics spontaneously in front of an audience is intimidating for most individuals. However, what if one was to take away the audience and replace speech with writing, would that be slightly less confronting? Perhaps for some, but written forms of speeches and argumentative pieces in the form of essays can be equally daunting for others. Either way, in order to pass the GAMSAT the great obstacle to your medical career, one is bound to prepare for the daunting task of perfecting essays unless one wishes to approach it unprepared. This essay collection does not consist of perfect essays, but rather examples of essays that were written by myself in preparation of my own GAMSAT. Having successfully passed the GAMSAT and entered medical school, a collection of non-polished essays completed under time restrictions are published in this collection. This approach has been purposely chosen to assist future applicants with an insight into the preparation of a previous applicant and to learn from common errors.

As part of the 9 part course on GAMSAT prep, the Essays study guide book will cover; In depth analysis of GAMSAT Section 2 essays written by previous GAMSAT candidates on sample GAMSAT exam questions. Section 2 is a unique part of the GAMSAT paper since it is the only section of the GAMSAT test that is NOT multiple choice. Some would even call this section "subjective". It presents a very unique challenge in GAMSAT Preparation, hence why Section 2 is one of the most underprepared sections in the GAMSAT exam. Essay analysis specifically gives prescriptive advice on action steps to improve the essay. Sample gamsat paper questions answered by past candidates with full analyses. Benchmark your own essays against the competition and see how you stack up, this takes away the "subjective" element of Section 2 scoring. See how the same Section 2 question can be approached by candidates in different ways, and the strengths and weaknesses of each approach.
