Building Our House On Rock

Build Your House on the Rock. 24. (A) "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like. (B) a wise man who built his house on the rock. 25 And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. 26 And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like.

Building Our House on the Rock. This past week marked 15 years since my wife and I bought our house—14 years longer than we planned to stay, 14 years longer than we could afford to stay.
We're now planning to sell our house and move closer to the center of our city, near the Christian schools our boys attend.

Building Our House on the Rock - Gentle Reformation

It would have been challenging to build on rocky terrain—it would have taken time, patience and hard work. But the wise man seems to have considered such factors and to have believed it would be worth the effort. Built into the rock, his house could endure the inevitable storms that would come.

Build on the Rock - Life, Hope & Truth

Why should we build our houses, or, in other words, our lives, on the rock of Jesus Christ and his gospel? (Helaman 5:12.) Help the children understand that Jesus and his teachings are our only sure foundation. If we build our lives on anything else, it would be like building a house upon sand.

Lesson 12: The House Built on a Rock

Jesus began by telling the people that whoever hears and does these things that He is telling them is like a wise man that builds his house on a rock. When the rains came and floods built up, and the winds blew and beat on that house, the storms didn't make the house fall down, because it was built on a good rock foundation.

The Wise Man and the Foolish Man. May 22, 2010 @ 12am, by Emmanuel Higgins. There were once two men, and each needed to build a house. The first man was foolish, and chose to build on sandy soil where it was easy to access and easy to dig the foundations. In a few short weeks he was almost finished. The second man was wise, and chose to build his house on a rocky hill, where it was very hard to access and to dig the foundation.

Our family recently moved into a new house. Let me amend that. Our family recently moved into a house that is new to us. The house itself is anything but new; it was built in 1899. Again, it was built not in this century, not in the last century, but the century before that. We moved in right before Halloween.
