Conflict Of Laws Federal State

Conflict of laws in the United States is the field of procedural law dealing with choice of law rules when a legal action implicates the substantive laws of more than one jurisdiction and a court must determine which law is most appropriate to resolve the action. In the United States, the rules governing these matters have diverged from the traditional rules applied internationally. The outcome of this process may require a court in one jurisdiction to apply the law of a different jurisdiction.

Conflict of laws in the United States - Wikipedia

Conflict of Laws Foundation. The conflict of laws is based upon the principle of choosing the most rational law to apply in a given case so as to give a fair result. It is known by different names, but none of them are accurate. In a federal system like the United States where the conflicts are mainly between different state laws, the term "conflict of laws" is more popular since these rules are rarely applied to international issues. However, it's still a general term that also applies ...
