A Wizard Alone: The Sixth Book in the Young Wizards Series ...

Review: A Wizard Alone by Diane Duane. Diane Duane's Young Wizards series began in 1983 with the publication of So You Want to Be a Wizard. With changes in publishers and long gaps between books, the series has some timeline issues, and some readers are finding the first books out of date. Because of these issues, as well her concerns about the quality of her writing nearly three decades later, Duane started updating the first four novels in the series.

Review: A Wizard Alone by Diane Duane

In one of the books, someone muses that young wizards are better able to sacrifice themselves. However, in Wizards at War, the older wizards lose their powers and forget about magic, which makes an already-bad situation worse, because although the younger wizards temporarily inherit their offices, they don't have the maturity and experience.
