Philosophy Of Science 2015 2016

The course is an introduction to philosophy of knowledge and will provide both knowledge as well as tools to identify the general paradigms which have informed the social science. As such, it relates to the other courses in the programme in such a way that it provides the meta-theories for the other courses as well as for the first-year project.

Philosophy of Science (2015/2016)

Philosophy of science is the philosophical study of the presuppositions, concepts, methods, and output of the sciences. This course opens with a comparison of the natural sciences, social sciences, and humanities: it studies the ways in which these disciplines engage with their objects and the forms of knowledge that they produce.
