It was time for me to move on to second. I was ready then, but not before. Even still, I have to admit that I couldn’t help but feel as though I had somehow slid backward as I reread my manuscript those many years ago (yes, I took the suggestion of my friends and fam- ily).

Life Without Ed - Jenni Schaefer

Ed convinced me that I needed him and that without him I was worthless, nothing special, and worse. He told me that he was looking out for my best interest — that his way was for my own good — but he always turned on me. He made promises that he never kept. When I hit bottom physically and emotionally, I finally decided to divorce him.
