Takeovers: overview | Practical Law

Takeover occurs when you buy or sell a business. There are several possibilities when it comes to the takeover of a business. The most common forms are (i) the share transaction and (ii) the assets-liabilities transaction. Transferring or taking over a company is an important step for all actors. The most common acquisition techniques are the share transaction, which effectively transfers control of the company, and the assets-liabilities transaction, which transfers assets.
