Why The Church
Luigi Giussani

Giussani begins by focusing on the Church
 as a community
 composed of people who are aware of themselves as defined by the gift of the Spirit, from which they derive a new conception of existence, the fruit of conversion. He then describes the Church's developing self-awareness of its dual elements of the human and divine.

One of Giussani's central themes is that Christian faith is, in its most primary and central form, the event of a relationship. Giussani stresses that Christianity began as a relationship with a particular individual, Jesus of Nazareth, and that the morals and theology of the Church are an outgrowth of this relationship.
