Grieg Lyric Pieces

For Piano

Lyric Pieces is a collection of 66 short pieces for solo piano written by Edvard Grieg. They were published in 10 volumes, from 1867 to 1901. The collection includes several of his best known pieces, such as Wedding Day at Troldhaugen, To Spring, March of the Trolls, and Butterfly. The theme of the first piece in the set, Arietta, was one of the composer's favorite melodies. He used it to complete the cycle in his last lyric piece, Remembrances — this time as a waltz. In 2002, Norwegian ...

Lyric Pieces - Wikipedia

Between 1867 and 1901, Grieg published 10 books of "Lyric Pieces" for solo piano.

From these, Leif Ove Andsnes has drawn a representative selection of 24 melodies from the first, "Arietta", to the final, "Remembrances". While Grieg's Piano Concerto in A minor is known the world over (Andsnes has made a celebrated recording) these highly expressive pieces span virtually the length of the composer's career, revealing a poetic sensibility midway between Chopin and Debussy.

Grieg: Lyric Pieces: Amazon.co.uk: Music

This set of pieces show what a poetic pianist Grieg was and why he came to be known as the 'Chopin of the north'. Some of the lyric pieces such as 'Butterfly', 'March of the Trolls' and

'Wedding Day at Trolldhaugen' are among his best known pieces and like Chopin he was obviously more comfortable with the piano miniature rather than more large scale works.
