Anime Characters are an abstracted illustration of reality, so their looks are idealized. In Japan light or white skin is seen as beautiful, so most Anime characters are drawn with white skin. But that does not mean, that they are not Japanese. In fact, most Japanese people will identify these characters as being Japanese and not as being foreign.

Why Do Anime Characters Look White - The Surprising Answer

TV animes made in the 1960s, such as Astro Boy, 8th Man, and Gigantor, were all shot in black and white. While there were color animes as early as Kimba the White Lion, there were still black and white shows being made as late as 1970. It was only until that year that every anime became color productions.
