Escape Theory Keaton School 1 Margaux Frole

Escape Theory was an adequate book. It was decently written and for the most part the characters were believably, if not terribly well developed. The plot/mystery held together decently and for a mystery, held just enough red herrings to keep the reader guessing.

Escape Theory Quotes by Margaux Frolely - Goodreads

I really liked Escape Theory because it gave me a VMars feel. Hero Complex is lacking what Devon and Hutch gave us in the first book. The second book revolves more around the Keaton and Dover families and flashbacks in history that cover the beginnings of it all. I miss the adventures taking place at The Keaton School.
