The Swaziland Education For All

The Swaziland Network Campaign for Education for All (SWANCEFA) is an NGO established in 2007 duly registered as such under the laws of Swaziland. It is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of seven (7) members representing member organizations.

In all, the Swazi government spends an average of $60 per student during their primary schooling. In the early 2000s, Swaziland instated two measures providing for vulnerable and orphaned students: a bursary scheme for Orphans and Vulnerable Children (OVC) in 2003 and the All Children Safe in School Initiative from 2003-2005. The former implemented free textbooks and workbooks for all primary school children starting in 2003, and universally provided visually impaired materials since 2006.

The University of Swaziland offers bachelors, masters, and Ph.D. degrees in education, commerce and science, as well as health science and agricultural fields. Swaziland's Department of Education manages curriculum and assessment procedures. Education is so centralized that it can ensure the implementation of its policies.
