Chalkboard Art is a very fun coloring book. It's one that I would describe as easy, since there are no really tiny details to fill in. The black background is also very forgiving of mistakes, so don't worry about coloring outside the lines! While I do think colored pencil gives the best chalk effect, other media will work as well.

The big draw for me for Chalkboard Art was the black background. I love it! Of course, it makes perfect sense for the pages to be black, since chalkboards are generally black. Although it would have been interesting to see some with the green background as well. In addition to the black surface, the coloring areas also contain some texture lines to look like chalk strokes. All of the coloring ...
