A Commentary On The Book
Writing a book commentary is similar to writing a book review. Commentaries tend to be more direct and express the commentator's views regarding the book. You can find book commentaries in magazines and online. If you are an avid reader, then it will be fairly easy to write this form of review. Give a brief synopsis of the book that you read. Think of the blurb on the back cover of the book.

Matthew Henry's Bible Commentary is arguably the best on the market and has been for several centuries. Highly recommended by most great preachers, it is a wonderful tool. Matthew Henry's closeness to the heart of God is so obvious from the way he distils the essence of spiritual truth from even the dullest of texts and brings it alive.
