The setup of the Denon AVR-591 is easy. It does have some features that require setup if you want to use them but it works fine without setting up the additional features. I don't understand how anyone would have a problem with it. The only thing requiring a look at the manual was the audessey setup. I didn't understand the automatic setup.

The AVR-591 is a solid receiver that does everything I need it to do. This is my 1st Denon product and I must say that it seems to "ooze" quality. Using the included mic with the auto setup program was simple and produced great results when using 5.1 for movies. Needless to say I'm very happy with my purchase.
