"To bear witness means several things. First, it means you are aware of the experiences of others, and you have close enough relationships to witness the things persons of color experience that whites do not. To witness something, you have to actually be there. And to be there, you have to be around people experiencing it.

Intervention Symposium - "Black Humanity: Bearing Witness ...

Bearing witness is an act of compassion, of empathy, of solidarity, and of justice. Bearing witness is holy.

Humanity is at its most powerful and transformative when we experience the truth of one another. Some of you may be thinking to yourselves that you don't need to see pain up close and personal to feel empathetic or to understand injustice.
