Community Development: A Critical Approach - Margaret ...

Community development is grounded in people's everyday lives. A critical approach to practice calls for analyses of power at every level, and one way of beginning that process is the community profile. In Freirean pedagogy, this begins in the narratives of the people and is set within an analysis of poverty as structural discrimination.

Community development (second edition): A critical approach

"Margaret Ledwith's new edition of Community Development reminds us of the importance of maintaining a critical reflexive perspective when undertaking action in a community....Ledwith's model for practice offers hope and optimism in dealing with the challenges that a neo-liberal society poses for marginalised and disenfranchised people."
