Bathroom units Built-in furniture and vanity units, which go around or under a sink, are a good way to make sure you’re using every inch of space. Combination units that join a sink and toilet together use the often-wasted space between the two. Look out for 'cloakroom' units, as they are typically smaller than standard-sized units.

Small Bathroom Ideas - Which?

Bathrooms are often squeezed into the smallest spaces possible and then people still seem to want to cram in a bath, separate shower, twin basins, toilet and bidet. Give your space a break! Only go for a separate bath and shower if there’s genuinely enough room; otherwise, combine the two.
