Catching Fire by Suzanne Collins - Reading Group Guides

Though considerably more violent than other Young Adult novels, Catching Fire skillfully handles the real-world themes of poverty, the distraction of empty entertainment, and government oppression. The events of the first novel have changed Katniss' world forever and, as her journey continues, she is forced to decide between choosing a larger role in the rebellion that she has unwittingly become the face of or running away in a last-ditch effort to save her loved ones.
