Conventional Arms Control. The Preamble (i.e. introduction) to the National Conventional Arms Control Act 2002 gives, as one of its premises, the assurance that the Republic is 'a responsible member of the international community and will not trade in conventional arms with states engaged in repression, aggression or terrorism'. The cynic might well wonder who our trading partners are, then, because there seems to be a fair amount of repression, and/or aggression, and/or terrorism these ...
