Death under Sail, C.P. Snow's first published novel, is a detective story set on the Norfolk Broads. It is a competent and enjoyable example of the genre which also anticipates in some respects Snow's subsequent non-genre fiction. Its focus on the 'play of forces' (37) among a small knot of characters in an enclosed environment both conforms to one of the conventions of the classic detective story and announces an interest in group dynamics 'in a self-contained society' (118 ...
