So, language doesn't affect what we can see in the world, but it is still possible that language affects people and society because maybe language still affects the way we can think. Some people say that sign languages don't have abstract signs because all signs are iconic and so deaf people can't think about abstract things (like love, bravery, inflation, investment for the future etc).

Session 1: Relationship between Language and Society

1 Language and society Language is both a system of communication between individuals and a social phenomenon. The area of language and society – sociolinguistics– is intended to show how our use of language is governed by such factors as class, gender, race, etc.
