If you fail to provide for a trust when the law says you must have one, the Court will set it up for you - possibly entirely against what your wishes might be. This happens most commonly where a will maker (known as the testator) fails to provide a trust for his or her children under 18. In this scenario, the Court appoints trustees.

He experienced first-hand how the command & control environment forced his crew to do anything he would say, even when it was wrong. David witnessed that the traditional command & control model (which he prefers to call to leader-follower model) used by the army and the majority of the companies in the world is outdated and no longer efficient.
