Description. The dominant bebop scale is an essential tool in playing jazz. It is used all over the place in jazz music. If you’re transcribing jazz solos you won’t have to go long before you find some variation of this scale being used. In my Approach Note Books I tackled Major and Minor tonalities pretty thoroughly.

Mastering the Dominant Bebop Scale (PDF Book)

Bebop scales are chord scales with added chromatic passing tones.They are created by interjecting one or more nondiatonic passing tones into the chord scales.When these passing notes are added to the diatonic chord scale certain notes then stand out in the scale. There are several commonly used bebop scales, major and dominant are the most common.
