centcom, civilian casualties, us military, yemeni civil war. Nov 6, 2020. US Central Command on Thursday largely dismissed the conclusions of a watchdog report on the number of civilians allegedly killed by the US military in Yemen since President Donald Trump took office. The report, published last week by the United Kingdom-based nongovernmental organization Airwars, concluded that at least 86 non-combatants were credibly reported to have been killed during US operations in Yemen since 2017.
