Situational Reasoning Test - Free Tests, Questions & Answers

A situational judgement test (SJT) is an extremely popular assessment method used by employers across many industries. The main premise of an SJT is to test a candidates behavioural decision-making and thought processes when introduced to hypothetical work-related scenarios. When given a scenario you will be presented with 4 or 5 possible actions that you could take, it's up to you to decide which is the most effective and least effective or be asked to rank them in order of effectiveness.

How to Pass a Situational Judgement Test (2020 Guide)

There are a variety of ways in which you will be asked to respond to situational judgement test questions: 1. Most and least effective. The situation is presented with four or five possible responses and you are asked to indicate which is 'most' and which is 'least' effective in your judgement.
