Your troops in Close Combat can move in various different ways:

- Move fast: The fastest way, good for assaulting. But units tend to get spread out and winded a lot, so it is best used in shorter intervals. I.e. move fast for some distance and then stop, wait for team to recover slightly and then move fast again.
- Move: Slow but cautious movement. Good if you have a team behind ready to provide covering fire (in case there is enemy contact) while you are approaching a bush, forest etc.
