When a new Mikuni carb leaves the factory, the floats are almost always set to factory specifications. Working for a Mikuni distributor, I've had the opportunity to open up and examine hundreds of brand new, fresh-out-of-the-box carbs. It is extremely rare to find a new carb not set to factory specs (or close enough to work just fine).

Mikuni engineers work with motorcycle manufacturers to adapt their carbs to a particular design to meet factory specifications. For instance, certain models may need an idle screw on the left side rather than the right to make it more accessible - or maybe the choke lever needs to be operated from the right rather than the left.
