The Rehearsal is the debut novel by Eleanor Catton, the author of The Luminaries, which I very much enjoyed, and which won the Man Booker Prize in 2013. Despite the praise which her second novel has had, relatively few readers in comparison seem to have come across The Rehearsal. I was so looking forward to reading Catton's debut, which was shortlisted for the Guardian First Book Award, and was written as her MFA thesis when she was just twenty two years old.

The Rehearsal by Eleanor Catton - Books-A-Million

The Rehearsal is a supremely confident debut that is all the more astonishing when one learns that its author, Eleanor Catton, is barely out of her teen years herself. Set in an elite drama school, music studio, and a neighboring high school, the book is a close-up look at the self-conscious agony of those who are on the cusp of adulthood, focusing particularly on an affair between a music teacher and a teenage girl.
