You're Not Safe by Mary Burton is the 3rd and final in the Texas Rangers Crime/Romance Series. FYI, as far as I was concerned, this is not a series per se. They can all be read as stand alone books. Although each book mentions characters from the other books, they aren't a big part of the story. Anyway, I have actually enjoyed all three of these books.

Romantic suspense is my favorite genre. However, I am usually drawn to books with International Espionage or Military/Black Ops scenarios that are heavy on romance. That being said, Mary Burton's You're Not Safe could be described as suspense with romantic elements. While I hoped that the relationship between our hero and heroine would be more integral to the story, the author nevertheless kept me engaged and guessing from beginning to end.
