Once again, Marie Sexton has created an interesting and satisfying read with A to Z, the second book of the Coda series. Although I didn't think this book was as good as her first one, Promises, it is still worthy of recommendation to anyone looking for something with endearing characters and thought-out plot. Her two stars, Zach and Angelo, are 3-Dimensional; they each have their own distinct personalities and voices, magnified by the story's alternating points of view (which Sexton handles ...
