St Edward's School, Oxford - Wikipedia

St. Edward's has strong links with Oxford University – one of the most academically rich universities in the world. Our pupils learn in its shadow, and are inspired by its proximity, following their own interests and extending their knowledge beyond the curriculum. They are challenged to aim high, and find their own success.

St Edward's has a wonderful physical archive preserving over 150 years of the history of the School. In 2018 the St Edward's Society paid for the digitisation of the School's publications. Our digital archive provides easy access to The Chronicle which was first published in 1873 and Rhubarb which was first published in 2010. The digital archive also contains images of the sporting shields from 1874 stored in the School Archives and those still on display in the School's Dining Hall.
