ASHE Higher Education Report, v38 n5 p1-138 2012. This monograph focuses on the main populations and topics in the collegereadiness literature. The population of U.S. youth who are traditionally aged high school and college students dominates research; for the most part, the authors concentrate on literature about this population. Within this broad parameter, the review is centrally concerned with the economically and educationally challenged students identified by Walpole (2007) as "low-SES ...
