Naomi Sondag. DCES: Languages. Languages cannot be taught, they can only be learnt. Learning another language is not only learning different words for the same thing but learning another way to think about things. And the best way is to make learners responsible for their own learning process, with the teacher as the guide who has to inspire them.

Divide exam papers into Smaller Tasks. The whole exam may require too much concentration and discipline. It would be a good idea to divide it into smaller sections over 10 - 20 minutes at a time while practising. A whole exam requires time, dedication and focus, might seem intimidated and overwhelming and can awaken reluctance to tackle.
